

CS 3723: Programming Languages

May 2, 2012

You Name:

1. For the first project presentation (Escobar, Rodrigo), please select one of the following options as your evaluation for the project presentation.
 - (a) The project and presentation are both superb.
 - (b) The project is impressive. The presentation is informative on JavaScript.
 - (c) The project is impressive, but the presentation is not informative on JavaScript.
 - (d) The project is just so so. The presentation is informative on how to use JavaScript.
 - (e) The project is just so so. The presentation is neither informative nor helpful.

Please state any additional comments or insights you have gained from the presentation.

2. For the second project presentation (Guzman, Javier), please select one of the following options as your evaluation for the project presentation.
 - (a) The project and presentation are both superb.
 - (b) The project is impressive. The presentation is informative on JavaScript.
 - (c) The project is impressive, but the presentation is not informative on JavaScript.
 - (d) The project is just so so. The presentation is informative on how to use JavaScript.
 - (e) The project is just so so. The presentation is neither informative nor helpful.

Please state any additional comments or insights you have gained from the presentation.

3. For the third project presentation (Leija, Jesse), please select one of the following options as your evaluation for the project presentation.
 - (a) The project and presentation are both superb.
 - (b) The project is impressive. The presentation is informative on JavaScript.
 - (c) The project is impressive, but the presentation is not informative on JavaScript.
 - (d) The project is just so so. The presentation is informative on how to use JavaScript.
 - (e) The project is just so so. The presentation is neither informative nor helpful.

Please state any additional comments or insights you have gained from the presentation.

4. For the fourth project presentation (Skillern, Ansley), please select one of the following options as your evaluation for the project presentation.
- (a) The project and presentation are both superb.
 - (b) The project is impressive. The presentation is informative on JavaScript.
 - (c) The project is impressive, but the presentation is not informative on JavaScript.
 - (d) The project is just so so. The presentation is informative on how to use JavaScript.
 - (e) The project is just so so. The presentation is neither informative nor helpful.

Please state any additional comments or insights you have gained from the presentation.

5. For the fifth project presentation (Washington, Eron), please select one of the following options as your evaluation for the project presentation.
- (a) The project and presentation are both superb.
 - (b) The project is impressive. The presentation is informative on JavaScript.
 - (c) The project is impressive, but the presentation is not informative on JavaScript.
 - (d) The project is just so so. The presentation is informative on how to use JavaScript.
 - (e) The project is just so so. The presentation is neither informative nor helpful.

Please state any additional comments or insights you have gained from the presentation.